EUROPEAN FILM FORUM BOLOGNA 2016

Il Cinema Ritrovato

XXX Edition, 30th June 2016

THE VALUE(S) OF FILM HERITAGE

Sala Auditorium - Laboratori delle Arti UniBo

Piazzetta Pasolini 2 – BOLOGNA

2:00 PM – 6:00 PM

The European Film Forum (EFF) was created by the European Commission in 2014 to facilitate a structured dialogue between the Commission, national film agencies and stakeholders in the European audiovisual sector. Its objective is to develop a strategic policy agenda, opening new perspectives and horizons for European cinema in the midst of new digital challenges. In the light of the Commission's Digital Single Market Strategy it is essential to discuss how to enhance the competitiveness, visibility and innovation capacity of the European audiovisual sector.
